DATA on FEDERAL FUNDING for EARLY CARE and EDUCATION by STATE

The following sources provide data on Federal funding for child care and early childhood education by State.

FEDERAL AGENCIES

Internal Revenue Service

■ Individual Tax Statistics, prepared by the Statistics of Income Division of the Internal Revenue Services (IRS), provides data on individual tax returns by geographic area, size of income, marital or filing status, and type of return. This section of the IRS Web site provides links to Microsoft Excel data tables on the Federal income tax for each State and the entire U.S. Data on the Child and Dependent Care Tax Credit (DCTC) is available in tables under the heading "Individual Income and Tax Data, by State and Size of Adjusted Gross Income". Data for Fiscal Years 1997 through 2002 are available on the Web at <http://www.irs.gov/taxstats/article/0,,id=103106,00.html>. Data on DCTC expenditure and number of tax returns claiming the credit is available on rows 58 and 59 of the Excel table for each State and the entire U.S. Additional information about the Child and Dependent Tax Credit is available on the Web at <http://www.irs.gov/taxtopics/tc602.html>.

U.S. Census Bureau

■ Consolidated Federal Funds Report (CFFR) is an online query system that provides data on Federal Government expenditures or obligations in State, county, and sub-county areas of the United States. The District of Columbia and U.S. outlying areas also are included. Various Federal Government agencies provide the data for this report from their existing reporting systems. Interactive searches may be performed according to geographic location, object category, Federal agency, and Federal program. For Federal program searches, output can be displayed for multiple years and/or multiple States or counties. Data for the Federal Fiscal Years 1993 to the present are available on the Web at <http://harvester.census.gov/cffr/index.html>.

U.S. Department of Education

■ The Budget Office, U.S. Department of Education, provides a variety of detailed budget tables on key aspects of the Department's budget, including the President's Budget Request, Congressional action on appropriations, State allocations, and historical funding levels. U.S. Department of Education budget tables are available on the Web at <http://www.ed.gov/about/overview/budget/tables.html?src=rt>.

The following is sample of data tables that provide funding allocation by State for all Department of Education programs including Child Care Access Means Parents in School (CCAMPIS), Even Start, Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 21st Century Community Learning Centers, and all other educations programs funded by the Federal government.

- FY 2001-2005 State Allocations, by Program and by State is available on the Web at <http://www.ed.gov/about/overview/budget/statetables/index.html>.
- State Funding History Tables: FY 1991—FY 2000 is available on the Web at <http://www.ed.gov/about/overview/budget/history/index.html>.

■ The annual Digest of Education Statistics report, by the National Center for Education Statistics, provides a compilation of statistical information covering the broad field of American education from prekindergarten through graduate school. The Digest includes a selection of data from many sources, both government and private, and draws especially on the results of surveys and activities carried out by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES). The publication contains data by State on Federal programs for education and related activities, including Head Start and the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP). The Digest of Education Statistics reports are available on the Web for years 1990 through 2003 at <http://nces.ed.gov/programs/digest/>.

The Digest of Education Statistics 1990 provides data on Head Start funding for Fiscal Years 1987, 1988, and 1989 (Table 336 on page 352). More recent reports provide data for subsequent Fiscal Years.

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

■ Child Care and Development Fund (CCDF) Expenditure Data, by the Child Care Bureau, provide data on Federal and State CCDF expenditures by State for Fiscal Years 1999–2003.
